ANOTHER STAR DISPLAYED

DOMINANT IS SCRATCHED, BUT HIS COMRADE BROMO WINS THE GRAB BAG HANDICAP.

Whitney Stable of Great Strength at Present-Holiday Defeats Virile and Montresor-Jacoba Sold to the Shoshone Stable.

Sold to the Shoshone Stable.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 18.—Trainer James Rowe of the L. S. Thompson stable, which was conceded to hold a strong hand in the Grab Bag Handicap today with Dominant and Bromo, withdrew the former and elected to start only Bromo, which won in a manner stamping him as a colt far above the ordinary. With Dominant, which had been looked upon as a certain winner, scratched. Bromo was not regarded seriously by the talent and his price receded from 4 to 1 to 5 to 1. Bromo, with an outer position, was rather slow about getting into his full racing stride and was badly outpaced until on the turn out of the the backstretch, where T. Mcfaggart made his move and the colt, responding with a great burst of speed, went around the leaders on the stretch turn and, drawing away into a three-lengths lead, won in a canter. The time was regarded as fair for the dull track. Bromo is now regarded as one of the cracks of the Whitney stable. With Dominant, Thunderer and Bromo as stars of the two-year-old division, and the unbeaten Kentucky Berby winner, Regret, in the older division, this stable is regarded as one of the strongest it has ever been the fortune of Harry Payne Whitney to possess. The Grab Bag Handicap was worth $2,860 net. Bounie Tess was an added starter and ran a creditable race.

A handicap at one mile attracted an evenly balanced band of second division racers, with Montresor ruling favorite. The winner turned up in Archibaid Barkhie's Hollday, which, showing much speed, raced into the lead shortly after the start and made the running throughout, to win by two lengths. Virile was easily second best and Montresor, which seemed to be under restraint in the early running, tired badly when called on in the stretch.

Old Salt shewed quite a bit of improvement to win the second turn of the field and he fell an easy victim to the rush of the winner after the last hurdle was cleared.

Micr Silica had scored a runaway victory in the first race, J. M. Coburn ran the Sanford filly up from $500 to $800 off.

Jockey G. Byrne has severed his connection with the H. C. Hallenbeck stable. The Parsons stable has second call upon his services.

The Shoshone Stable today purchased the filly Jacoba from J. O. Keene, after having negotiated for her for several days. The reported price is $10,000. She ran in the Grab Bag Handicap today in the colors of S. L. Parsons, who had leased her to this event.

HALF THE CARD TO FIRST CHOICES.

Toronto, Ont., August 18.—Favorites again won half of the card provided for the fourth day's racing at Hillcrest Park this afternoon. The conditions were again most favorable and the largest crowd of the week, fully 3.500, was in attendance. Jockey Burger, a green apprentice boy, carried of the riding honors with two winners, one of which Carrie Orme, was the best backed horse of the day. She had to be much the best to win, for she ran wide when entering the stretch.

One of the most keenly contested races ever witnessed here came with the running of the fourth. General, Sureget and Tactless ran heads apart most of the way to the stretch. In a hard drive General, favored by an inside position, won by a head over Sureget. The latter was on the outside throughout, but both horses showed rare gameness, Jessup Burn nosed Tactless out of third place in the closing strides.

nosed Tactless out of third place in the closing strides.

Zall established a track record of 1:22% for six and a half furlougs when he led throughout in the seventh. He was closely pressed by King Worth in the early running, but drew away handly in the stretch.

The finish of the concluding race found the thre-placed horses half lengths apart and all driving to the limit.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

A. H. K., Milwaukee, Wis., and others. Else-where. When Lindenthal was disqualified he was placed last, as is always the case when horses are disqualified in eastern racing.

WINDSOR'S RACING QUITE INTERESTING.

Feature Race of the Day Taken by Mockery-Man darin Wins for Mr. Seagram.

Detroit, Mich., August 18.—Today's program at Windsor was made up of a series of overnight races. Well-balanced fields went to the post in a majority of the races and the contests were interesting. The mile and one-sixteenth dash that was fourth on the card attracted the most interest. P. M. Civili furnished the winner in this race in Mockery, which came from behind and, after closing a big gap, won easily from King Box.

The S. M. Henderson stable won its first purse of the meeting when Langhorne beat out a big band in the third race. The winner came out of the race lame behind and fear was expressed by his owner that the horse had broken down. J. E. Seagram's good-looking Mandarin won the race for Canadianbreds, Mandarin ran a good, game race, being forced to overcome much bumping in the homestretch.

forced to overcome much bumping in the home-stretch.

Mortimer Mahoney, before coning to Windsor in company with James O'Hara, made a thorough inspection of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association's track at Bowie and reports numerous improvements made on the course. The track has been regraded and the infield leveled. This will enabel those in the grandstand to obtain a splendid view of all parts of the track. The betting ring has also been enclosed in glass, which will make that part of the enclosure comfortable in cold weather.

that part of the enclosure comportant weather, R. L. Baker, who is here for the meeting, today made an effort to engage jockey Cooper to ride for the Baker stable during the Kentucky fall meetings. Cooper, who is under controct to Willie Martin, was forced to decline as his employer intends finishing out the season on the Canadian tracks.

Marin, was forced to decline as his employer intends finishing out the season on the Canadian tracks.

At a meeting of the stewards of the Canadian Racing Associations held in the clubbouse at the Windsor course this afternoon the suspension against jockey Ambrose was lifted. Ambrose got into trouble over the running of the two-year-old Milestone and his case has come up for consideration several times during the summer. This winds up the Milestone affair and all of the parties concerned, including the horses owned by the Quincy Stable, are again in good standing.

Francis J. Pons, who came up from Tennessee a few days ago, is weeding out his stable preparatory to shipping back to his farm near Nashville. He disposed of the two-year-old J. Z. Wiggins to his horother, Owen E. Pons, He also arranged with the latter to take over the filly Miss Waters. The remainder of the string will be shipped to Tennessee on Monday next to be freshened up for the fall meetings in Kentucky, Mr. Pons has decided to put Judge Wright in training again and trainer W. R. Saltee will take the horse up immediately upon his arrival at the Pons farm. No attempt will be shore this morning. He will remain here several days before leaving for Ottawa.

W. Northey, secretary of the Montreal Jockey Club, is expected here tomorrow to confer with Joseph McLeman relative to arranging with the horsemen for stabling at Blue Bonnets for the fall meeting.

horsemen for stabling a meeting.

H. J. McIntyre, J. H. Madigin and W. P. Fraser were arrivals today. They came to attend the meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations.

O. E. Pons has obtained first call on the apprentice W. Ural for the remainder of the Canadian tice W. Ural for the remainder of the Canadian meetings.

Charles Boyle, Sr., one of the old guard of turfmen and at one time associated with the late Charles Littlefield in the ownership of a powerful stable that raced in the east, was a visitor this afternoon. Mr. Boyle has six highly bred mares at his farm at Woodstock, Ont., and three of them Golden Wedding, Rosedale and Cipher Code, have yearling colts by the Meddler stallion Detective. It is the intention of Mr. Boyle to bring these youngsters to the races next spring.

P. Sheridan, owner of Venetia, Back Bay and other horses racing on the Canadian circuit, has obtained a contract on the apprentice Robert Anderson. This lad, who is said to be a promising rider, comes from Tennessee.

The ban on the horse Luther, whose entries were refused on account of being a bad post actor, has been lifted.

AMBITIOUS CALIFORNIA RACING PLANS.

A circuit of thoroughbred race meetings for the Pacific Coast is the plan of the Golden Gate Breeders' Association, which is promoting the coming races at the Exposition track and is fathering the turf revival in California. The association is figuring on running only thirty days or so at one meeting, and it realizes that it is at a disadvantage in attracting horses with only one track on which to race. A turfman could hardly afford to make the long and expensive trip from the east simply to campaign for thirty days. It is for this reason that more horses from the east are not coming to the exposition. The Golden Gate Breeders' Association is accordingly laying plans to branch out so that more opportunity will be offered the horsemen and their gallopers, Of course, the plans at this time are simply tentative, for it is not known how the exposition meeting will take with the public. If the races are a success, however, as the prominent horsemen confidently expect, an effort will be made to organize the circuit.

Horsemen in Los Angeles will be interested in launching a club there similar to the breeders' body here, so that a race meeting can be promoted for thirty days or so. Mrs. Anita Baldwin, so it is understood, has been approached and favors the idea. The Sanita Anita track would be available in that event, and the hundreds of horses that arecoming here could proceed to Southern California.

At the conclusion of the Los Angeles meeting, another thirty days of the sport could likely be scheduled for the exposition track. The men behind the turf revival realize the dangers of giving long meetings, but they figure that an interval of a month or so and then for only thirty days would not do any harm. This would make ninety days of racing, and Reno would be in line about that time for another meeting, say nineteen to twenty days. A circuit of thoroughbred race meetings for the

that time for another meeting, say nineteen to twenty days.

With Denver giving a meeting and talk of racing at Las Vegas, Nevada, and Tia Juana, Lower California, in the winter months, it would provide plenty of places for the horsemen to campaign their strings. There would be no necessity to travel to the far east.

Prospects for the sport coming back on a sound business basis, with the industry of breeding foremost in view and racing a secondary consideration, the turfmen are looking forward to the future with a deal of pleasure.—San Francisco Chronicle of August 12.

SALES OF THOROUGHBREDS TO COME.

The Powers-Hunter company has an attractive program of sales for the late summer and early autumn racing season. The first will be the sale of the entire stable of John W. Schorr of Memphis at Saratoga next Saturday, at which the sterling racers Ed Crump. David Craig. Leochares. Golderest Boy. Eddie Delling, Mars Cassidy, Lindenthal, John W. Klein and Lady Vandergrift will go under the hammer. This will be followed by another sale of horses in training on Saturday, the 28th, and that by the last big yearling sale of the season at Sheepshead Bay on August 31.

At the yearling sale sixty budding racers from the Mere Hill, Larchmont, Glen Helen, Spendthrift and Adelbert studs will go under the hammer. This sale will be held in the old-fashioned way under a

The book for the fall meeting of the Connaught Park Jockey Club at Ottawa has made its appearance. It is built along much the same lines as for the meeting in June. Seven races will be run cach afternoon, including one for jumpers.

Celesta is in grand form this year. On the last day of the Reno meeting, with 128 pounds on her back, she won the $1,000 Overland Handicap at a mile by five lengths in 1:38%, with Zoroaster, 103 pounds, second, and Rash, 162 pounds, third.

H. T. Comisky, well known in racing and other lines of sports, died recently at his home in California. He was a popular man and, in the words of one of his friends, "a grand character, a true, honorable sportsman, a loving husband and father."

Danlels & Hodge of Denver have reached the Exposition track at San Francisco with eight horses including Loftus and John Graham. C. L. Stevens and J. D. English have also arrived with a string of four, including Reward, Breezer, El Cuchillo and Medelle.

Freda Johnson changed hands after winning a race at King Edward Park, Montreal, Friday. She was bid up by W. C. Capps, who recently lost Miss Brush by the claiming process to E. H. Short. Capps bid Freda Johnson up to $400, an advance of $200, and took her.

John W. Schorr has sent to the Kentucky Association track three yearlings—a brother to John Gund, winner of the Latonia Derby; a brother to Ed Crump and a chestnut colt by Ultimus—Woodlight—and turned them over to the J. O. Keene stable for breaking.

stable for breaking.

John D. Carr has sold to Eugenio Alvarez, of Cuba, four yearlings, as follows: Bay colt, by Dick Welles—Lamp Girl, by Lamplighter; bay colt, by Hastings—Pocketpiece, by Hanover; black filly, by Dick Welles—Fluid, by Blitzen; black filly, by Dick Welles—Fluid, by Blitzen; black filly, by Dick Welles—Phenie Fickle, by Woolsthorpe.

Jockey Feeny arrived at Reno from Deer Lodge, August 13, and reported that the Deer Lodge meeting lasted but seven days, closing for lack of patronage. He reported that the stables of W. C. WcClintock and others had left Deer Lodge for San Francisco.
